

GIULIO DI PINTO

Passionately interested in diplomacy, international communications, and relevant international issues linked to sustainable and humanitarian development, nutrition, food insecurity, rural poverty, and resilience. Desiring to work in international organizations to directly experience the international relations, and to further strengthen personal and professional skills in challenging, proactive, open-minded and international environments.

Education

- 10/2015 – 03/2016: Executive Program in Diplomacy - LUISS School of Government (Rome, Italy).
- 09/2012 – 04/2015: Master's Degree, International Relations - LUISS University (Rome, Italy).
- 09/2008 – 03/2012: Bachelor's Degree, Political Science and Communications – LUISS University (Rome, Italy).

Experience

06/2017 present	Consultant, Guidance and Donor Relations United Nations World Food Programme, Humanitarian Response Depot (Rome, Italy) Supported the Network's Donor Relations, and Information Management (IM), Communications and Reporting efforts within the Supply Chain Division. Worked with the UNHRD Customer Service in welcoming new Partners and guiding them through the partnership process. Drafted internal donors' profiles, and preparatory meeting/mission materials for the UNHRD Network Coordinator, and WFP Executives. Contributed to the 2017 UNHRD Global Partner Meeting. Co-supervised one intern in Information Management and Communications. Since September 2017, assigned to the WFP Sierra Leone Country Office as Logistics Information Management Officer. Supported IM and Reporting efforts in coordination with National Government, UN Agencies, and NGO personnel responding to the mudslides that affected Freetown.
10/2016 06/2017	Intern, Information Management and Communications United Nations World Food Programme, Humanitarian Response Depot (Rome, Italy) Supported the IM and Communications activities (social media, and blogposts). Network data gathering and consolidation for reporting. Contributed to the "Group of Friends of UNHRD" event, and to the UNHRD Hub Managers' Meeting. Participated in the Supply Chain Division IM integration, analysing data and outlining solutions for the WFP Emergency Operations Platform (OPWEB). Supervised the UNHRD website revamp and e-Catalogue development. Attended the Logistics Cluster IM, OPWEB back-end basis, and SSAFE trainings.
10/2011 12/2013	Head, Web Communications Team Consules (Rome, Italy) Web communications, development and implementation of social media campaigns. Fostered web partners' relations, social data analysis, written reports. Acted as head delegate/tutor for the simulation project National Model United Nations 2013, and as head of logistics and promotion for the "New Transatlantic Relations" and the "Consules Model United Nations".
07/2008 09/2008	Intern, Human Resources and Finance IN.CO.GEN. S.A. (La Romana, Dominican Republic) Assisting on invoices, and staff schedule. Data analysis and consolidation. Working language: Spanish.

Languages:

- Working proficiency in spoken and written English and Spanish (Common European Framework C1).
- Basic communications skills in French (Common European Framework A1).
- Native Italian speaker.

Skills:

- Traditional and social media campaigns planning and management.
- Events set-up, coordination and follow-up. Press releases drafting and review.
- Research, reporting, data analysis and consolidation.
- Independent and interdependent team worker – even remotely.
- Ability to manage multiple tasks and complex issues through a deadline-oriented workflow.
- Able to adapt to changing conditions and work assignments.

IT Skills:

- Knowledge of leading Operating Systems, e-mail clients, and Internet Browsers.
- Proficient with Microsoft Office and Adobe suites or open source equivalents.
- Basic knowledge of databases, web design and dynamic web coding: HTML, CSS, ASP Classic.
- Proficient with Content Management Systems: Drupal, Joomla, Wordpress, and Typo3.
- Basic knowledge of mapping tools: ArcGIS, Visio.